CALLS FOR DEFEAT OF SOLDIER BONUS

Treasury Head Tells Senate It Virtually Would Bankrupt U. S.

VETO SEEMS CERTAIN

Senator Underwood Praises Stand of Secretary Mellon—Cost up to $5,250,000,000

Washington, July 7.—The Harding Administration delivered a staggering blow to soldier bonus legislation yesterday, when Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, at the direction of President Harding, declared that the pending bill would "commit the Government to a stupendous indeterminate liability," which virtually would bankrupt the Federal Treasury.

This statement was made in a communication addressed to Senator Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, and read in the Senate late yesterday afternoon. The letter created confusion bordering on demoralization in view of the Senate's action yesterday in making the "adjusted compensation" bill dealing with the bonus under a five schedule plan the unfinished business of that body. This action forces the Senate to vote upon the bill unless its friends voluntarily lay it aside.

No action hitherto taken by the Harding Administration has so bewildered Republican leaders, many of whom feel that they have been unfairly dealt with in being allowed to bring bonus legislation to the point of passage before finding that President Harding and his Secretary of the Treasury opposed it as uncompromisingly as did President Wilson and Secretary Houston.

To add further to the embarrassment of majority leaders of the House and Senate, the Mellon letter is so decisive as to leave no doubt as to the President's determination to veto the measure should Congress disregard the objections presented by Mr. Mellon and pass the bill not withstanding. There does not appear to be the slightest chance of passing the bill over a veto, and Congressional leaders fully realize the futility of bringing it to a vote, harrassed as they are by the bonus lobby.

As soon as the letter was read the Senate ordered it printed as a public document, taking note of the fact that it was dated July 2, although only made public yesterday afternoon. Why it should have been held four days is a mystery to most Senators. The only explanation offered is that the letter was only intended to be made public should it appear that the enactment of the bill was imminent.

Senator Underwood, minority leader, took the floor immediately with a complimentary reference to the position taken by Secretary Mellon, saying that the Secretary had correctly diagnosed the national situation.

"It is an unpleasant task," said Senator Underwood, "to oppose this so called Soldier Bonus bill. I had not expected the letter of the Secretary of the Treasury when I made a few remarks in opposition the other day. However, the Secretary has frankly and courageously analyzed our situation. His letter has thoroughly covered the ground. He is eminently correct in his attitude toward this legislation."

Replying briefly, Senator McCumber, Republican, in charge of the bill, denied that any attempt was being made to measure the services of soldiers of the World War in dollars.

Mr. Mellon, who wrote in response to an inquiry as to the burden which the bonus would place upon the Treasury, showed that the cost of the enterprise might run as high as $5,250,000,000. In any event the legislation, he asserted, inevitably would increase the war burden enormously and could be financed only by adding to the public debt and by levying new taxes.

Moreover, it was shown that such legislation would complicate the refunding operations of the Treasury, particularly so on account of early maturity of $7,500,000,000 of outstanding obligations, $5,000,000,000 of which would fall in the same fiscal year in which it is proposed to begin payments under the bonus bill.

Then, too, it is contended by Mr. Mellon that the Liberty bonds, now below par, would be depressed further in market value. In that general connection it was shown that already "there is grave danger that the necessary expenditures of the Government in the near future will exceed its current receipts, leaving deficits to be met by new taxes or further borrowing."

Concluding, Mr. Mellon recognized the obligation of the Government to provide generously for disabled veterans of the war, saying that this obligation could not be discharged adequately if "we dissipate our resources in a sweeping plan for cash payments to able-bodied former soldiers and sailors."

MASS MEETING

At Opera House Saturday Night in Behalf of Disabled Veterans

As announced in yesterday's Gazette, and as stated in a proclamation of the mayor, printed elsewhere in this issue, the American Legion will hold a mass meeting at the Opera House Saturday evening, at which National representatives of the Legion will explain the purposes of the Service Drive which is now being carried on by the Legion.

In spite of the wide publicity given to the deplorable state or many of the former service men who have claims against the Government due to their service, but who have never received aid, many men who are entitled to compensation have never filed claims, believing that it is useless. The American Legion has done more than any other agency to bring claims to the attention of the proper authorities and to see that they are allowed.

It is the purpose of the local Post to get in touch with every man in this city and vicinity who is entitled to compensation and who has either never received any aid, or whose compensation is insufficient for his needs or less than is properly due him, and to handle each of these claims separately, promptly and vigorously with the various agencies in Washington.

All former service men, their friends, and every person who is directly or indirectly interested in this great work should attend this meeting, hear what the speakers have to say, and give their assistance in locating the needy men. The Legion will do the rest. There are numbers of men in Alexandria who should receive compensation but do not. Who are they? Numbers of others are drawing a mere pittance when they should draw the highest amount allowed. Who are they?

In New York State alone during the past year Four Hundred disabled veterans have committed suicide, due to their service in the World War, and at least partly due to the feeling that they had been neglected by their government. One of the great objects of this Service Drive is to put an end to this. Your help is needed. Attend this meeting and you will be told how you can help.

The meeting will be at 8 o'clock in the Opera House. The speaker will be two National Committeemen of the American Legion, the State Commander of the Legion, and Dr. KaKte Waller Barrett, State President of the Women's Auxiliary. The National Committeemen are "Al" Herbon and "Dem" Hollenga, both of whom have a wide reputation as speakers. The State Commander is Major Robert T. Banton, of Winchester, who is already known to Alexandria.

The Citizens' Band will furnish music, and the Woman's Auxiliary will arrange to serve cold drinks.

Your attendance is requested as a patriotic duty to be performed in simple justice to those who gave up the best of their young lives for their country.

WHISKEY POURING PATHETIC SIGHT

Thirsty Pilgrims See Hooch Dumped Into Sewer

720 GALLONS BRANDY

117 Quarts of Rye Also go to Fishes For Big Drunk—Kiwanians Sing "How Dry I Am."

Seven hundred and twenty gallons of brandy and one hundred and seventeen quarts of rye whisky shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon were poured into the sewer at the postoffice corner, Prince and St. Asaph streets, following order from Judge D. Lawrence Groner of the United States court for the Eastern district of Virginia.

A hundred people stood around and watched the ceremony. There were thirty-six barrels containing twenty gallons each. Many went as they saw the hooch flow off into the big sewer to find its way into the Potomac where the fishes will have a big drunk. It was a heartrending sight to many of those assembled who were endeavoring to figure out the honest to goodness value of the hooch in dollars and cents.

The members of the Kiwanis Club were in session at their weekly dinner in the Westminster Building directly across the street. The tragedy gave many of its members a severe jolt. They got the odor of the hooch and all joined in singing as the orchestra struck up, "How Dry I Am."

As the hooch ran down the big sewer movie camera men choked away and just as the last barrel was emptied the colored driver was requested by the camera man to stick his finger down and get it moist with the hooch and put it in his mouth. He did so completing the picture for the movies.

Deputy Marshal William S. Schoeni weilded a big ax into the head of each abrrel. The strong oder of the brandy pereated the neighborhood and attracted many a good distance away to the scene.

Somebody in the crowd started home for a cup to save some of the brandy. One more familiar with the law than the person who made the start cautioned him of the folly of such a trip. The man, however, said he thought it would be all right to save what could be saved. The work of sewering the hooch was under the direction of Marshal Clarence G. Smithers. Other court officials were in attendance. It was the largest pouring out of hooch ever accomplished in Alexandria.

A lone policeman stood by and watched the ceremony. Previous to disposing of the brandy the officers emptied the quarts of rye liquor in to the sewer from the wash basin adjoining the court room.

When the work was completed the crowd departed a sorry looking set. It was indeed a sad day for all. Many whistled "How Dry I Am."

PROCLAMATION!

Public Half-Holiday!

The American Legion has instituted a Service Drive, the purpose of which is thee-fold:

First—To locate all former service men who have, or should have, claims against the Government due to their military service, and to assist these men in properly presenting their claims, and obtain for them the aid they so richly deserve and in many cases so urgently need. Many of our boys have failed to secure aid when most needed, and it is proposed to locate such men and push their claims with the utmost vigor.

Second—To enlist the active support of all former service men for the American Legion, so that this organization may be of Real Service to those who need it and who must and shall have it.

Third—To make the American Legion a real, active force in this community for the betterment of the community.

To accomplish these ends a Mass Meeting will be held next Saturday night, July 9th, at the Opera House. National representatives of the Legion will address the meeting. The ladies of the Auxiliary will serve cool drinks.

Now Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor, and in order that all may prepare to attend and take part in this meeting, Saturday afternoon, July 9, 1921, is hereby proclaimed a Public Half-Holiday, and all former service men and their friends and their friends' friends are urged to attend this meeting.

J. M. DUNCAN,
Mayor.

Pastor Resigns

Rev. W. L. Wayts Served Five Years With Del Ray Baptist Church

After five years of successful service with the Botist Church of Del Ray, Rev. W. L. Wayts, on account of physical infirmities, has decided to resign at once from the active work of the pastorate.

During this period, in spite of delicate health, he has been able to accomplish some notable things. The church he found heavily in debt and he has had the pleasure of seeing the entire debt obliterated. During this period the membership of the church has practically doubled, with the addition of much strength. In the great $75,000,000 drive of the Southern Baptist Convention, by personal work, the apportionment given the church, was doubled.

Needed improvements are being made upon the church. It is a pleasure to the many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Wayts that they have decided, that for a time at least, they will make their home in Del Ray. Mr. Wayts has always been one of the most active and most successful workers in his denomination in Virdecline in health, in Virginia, and there are church buildings at Buena Vista and Farmville which stand as monuments to him.

Athletic Events

O. D. Boat Club Entertains In Honor of Returned Students

About eighty members of the Old Dominion Boat Club gathered at their Club house last night and enjoyed a feast and also some good athletic stunts. This smoker was known as the "Welcome Home" smoker and had for its object the welcoming of the members who recently returned from college.

Harry Howard, who was in charge of the program, had some excellent talent lined up for the amusement of the members. The numbers follow: Jack Pohl against Breuse Burke in a 2 round bout. Although no decision was rendered, Pohl won easily. Curtain was then matched up with Shuman for a two round bout, but before the first round had been completed Curtin, in striking, sprained his wrist and the bout had to be completed by Henry Howard. Jack Pohl was then chosen to box two rounds with Stanley King. This bout was the fastest and the most thrilling one of the evening, neither seeming to be able to outpoint the other. This was the last of the boxing events so the mat was then unrolled and Currier was matched with Vincent Young for a five minute match. Young out weighed his opponent but was unable to gain a fall. The match proved a tie. Second of the wrestling contests Harry Howard was put on against Alvin Friedlander for a five minute match which also ended without a victory. Mike Houston and Mule Moone, lightweights were next for a five minute match At the end of the first minute and a half "Mike" had secured a fall, Houston scored a fall at the end of two more minutes and then two more in quick succession. Beeton and Howard then gave a fast exhibition match which ended the athletic program.

The Boat Club Orchestra composed of Magnus Bales pianist, Hollis Nugent, cornetist, and Alvin Friedlander, violinist favored the members with several selections.

The business meeting to have been held last night was postponed until next Wednesday night.

RAILWAY RATES MAY NOT BE CUT

Senate Probe Into Roads is Suspended Until The Fall

NO CHANGE IN LAW

Charges Cannot Come Down Until Expenses Drop, Cummings Holds—Only Educational in Value

Washington, July 7.—There will be no general reduction of railroad rates and no material changes in the Esch-Cummins Transportation act this year. That is the opinion today of the men in Congress who have been in closest touch with the investigation into the condition of the railroads, and it is the opinion of the best informed outside of Congress.

The investigation by the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, headed by Senator Cummins, which has been under way for weeks, has been suspended until the latter part of August or early in September. Thus far only the railroad people and S. Davies Warfield and other representatives of the owners of railroad securities have been heard. When the hearings are resumed representatives of labor and the shippers are expected to go on the stand

The best posted men in Congress on the railroad situation have no idea that the hearings will result in any concrete action this year. Their view is that the hearings already held and those to be held are important for the educational value to the public, in revealing the cause of the railroads' distress, but not otherwise important at this time—either as to rates or to changes in the laws, such as advocated by Mr. Warfield. It is the purpose of these men, and it is likely that their views will control, to allow more time for the thorough testing of the Transportation act.

As to rates, the thought of Senator Cummins, the foremost railroad authority in the Senate, and of those who follow him, is this:

Rates cannot come down unless the operating expenses of the railroads come down. Any court would hold the present rates to be confiscatory if the railroads went into court and asked for a review, since the rates are failing to yield a fair return on the railroads' property. But the roads will not go into court, because higher rates under present business conditions would not yield any more revenue. As the rates can not come down until there is a decrease in operating expenses, any arbitrary reduction would have to be met out of the Federal Treasury, which is not contemplated. Therefore, the only course is to wait until the falling costs of wages and supplies reach the point where the railroads will be able with safety to cut rates.

That, of course, deals with a general reduction. It does not affect the reductions that are involved in some of the thousands of rate readjustments that are being made in all parts of the country. These readjustments, however, are not designed primarily to reduce rates, but to remove injustices in the rates on various commodies attendant upon the horizontal rate increases ordered during the period of Federal control and the horizontal increase ordered as of August 26 last by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

President Harding has indicated that he thought rates should come down, but there is no sign now that he will force them down by bringing pressure to bear upon the Interstate Commerce Commission. And, if the view held by authorities in Congress that courts would hold the present rates confiscatory is sound, any efforts of the Interstate Commission, under pressure from the President, to beat down the rates generally probably would be defeated by appeals of the railroads to the Federal courts.

The "educational value" to the public of the hearings, held by some of the students in Congress of railroad affairs to be the chief value of the hearing conducted by the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, is TODAY'S THOUGHT The uttered part of a man's life, let us always repeat, bears to the unuttered, unconscious part, a small proportion. He himself never knows it, much less do others.

Carlyle.

New War Damper.

Silence speaks louder than words. Silence is golden and sound is silvern. We will have to modernize these two ancient adages and say: Silence shoots further than noise. They have just invented a silent cannon that shoots a four-ton explosive gas bomb a distance of two or three hundred miles, at a velocity of one to five miles a second. 'Tis the work of the Angle-Saxon brain. Three or four of the best, in truth, gathered together and working with the unity and precision of bees. There is no smoke, no recoil, little heat, and only a faint sibilance after the discharge. Valuable weapon this for the policemen of the League of Nations! The most effective war-damper yet swum into the ken of Man.

Just a Spark Needed.

The United States has just sent a naval force to Tampico, to protect American oil interests. Just a spark, now, will ignite the fireworks. Sometimes the fire-chief of a large city will order a block of buildings blown up to save the town. A heroic remedy, but a measure of practical wisdom. For ten years Mexico has been aflame. Uncle Sam's trousers have been scorched divers times during that period. He has tried smiling and turning the other cheek. The Mexicans think we are a race of cowards. They have infected all Latin-America with somewhat of the same idea. Perhaps a block of buildings will have to be sacrificed in order that a conflagration may not sweep the whole continent.

A New Germany!

And now the German Silesians, or the Silesian Germans, at your choice, are mouthing dire threats of a march to Berlin. They propose to clean up that city and then oust the national government, replacing it by royalists. Monarchy dies hard but it is moribund just the same. Germany is too much a nation of thinkers to ever return to its belief in Kaiserism and the Divine Right of Kings. She is being re-born and the parturition is necessarily painful and slow. But the new Democracy will be worth all the pangs it cost. Some day the world will wonder at its bigotry anent hereditary princes and noblemen and the ancient superstition will be relegated to its proper place along with the credo of witches, warlocks, and wurricoes.

A Wireless King Stre

Alexandria's King Street is a maze of tangled and criss-cross wires; a panorama of drunken telegraph, telephone and electric light poles, that befog the view, stagger the vision, and nauseate the artistic sensibilities of the wayfarer. A City Council should have remedied this long ago. But executive responsibility is too thinly scattered among large bodies; that is why they move slowly. We need a city-manager; and if he does not attend to this tipsy befuddlement of King Street in short order—get one who will!

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS

Admiral Warren had issued his Proclamation, dated at Bermuda, about the 21st of June, declaring the Ports of New York, Charleston, Savannah, Port Royal, and Mississippi, in a state of blockade.

A gentleman waited upon Admiral Warren, to know if vessels could arrive at or depart from any intermediate port, not particularly mentioned in the official order, without being liable to capture or condemnation? His reply was: "That all vessels taken going in or coming out of any port between Montaug Point and the Mississippi would be liable to capture and condemnation." The question was also asked him—whether a vessel would be liable to capture if taken bound into New Haven. His reply was: "Yes, or anywhere in the Sound."

SPORTS

An interesting game of ball was played on Baggett's field yesterday when the teams of the Trinity and Southern Methodist battled to an unexpected finish. The final score was 8 to 5 with the Trinity team on the long end of the score. The Southern Methodist team held the lead until the seventh at which time the Trinity boys went on a rampage and saw five come safely down the third base line. Pitchers; M. E. S. Allen; Trinity, Brown.

This game played havoc with the league standing, ousting the Southern Methodists out of first place thereby putting the First Baptists in the first place and tying Trinity and Southern Methodists for the next two places and leaving the Second Baptists at the end of the line. Standing of the clubs:

	W.	L.	Pct.
First Baptist	3	2	600
M. E. S.	4	3	571

Second Baptist	1	4	200

The Trinagle Sport Club who claim the junior championship of Alexandria and Northern Virginia, will meet the fast Yankee Reserve Champions of Washington, on the high school grounds Sunday at 1 o'clock. The following is the line up: Davis or Duty 1st, catcher Ramage, 2nd, Edwards or Landford, 3rd, Heflin ss., Duty rf., Chauncey, cf., Pettit, lf., Blunt, or Smith, P Lawler or Whitton, C. substitutes, L. F. Howard, ss., Ford 3rd, West, rf. The T. S. C., will practice Friday at 5:30 on high school grounds.

The Triple A's which just returned from a trip to Warsaw, Va., played two very remarkable and interesting games. The Triple A's lost the morning game 2 to 0. Quale, who pitched this game, struck out fifteen men and only allowed six hits, which ordinarily would win any game, but all the breaks were against him. The afternoon game was 3 to 0 in favor of the A's. Both teams got three hits in the latter game. Convoy, who played center, made the most remarkable catch that was ever witnessed on any ball diamond. Savage, who played third base for the A's, played major league baseball, getting everything that came his way. Lefty Flynn pitched the evening game and proved his mettle in the pinches. A bright future is all this youngster can look for. Happy Jack Tullock caught both games for the A's and played perfect baseball. His wondeful catch of a foul in the grandstand brought cheers from all. Hurrah for Jack! Considering the difficult ride of over sixty miles by truck to Warsaw, the team on the whole played sensational ball. The A's cannot say too much for the treatment they received, as everybody was given the best of care.

Everybody welcome to the shipyard grounds Sunday. Triple A's vs. Camp Humphreys picked nine. Game 3 p. m. Come one, come all. A good game is surely promised.

Why the New Perfection is so successful for cooking

THE present New Perfection Oil Cook Stove owes its success to its design and the care with which it is built. Early types of "oil stoves" cannot compare with it in convenience, economy and durability.

The New Perfection burner produces the hottest kind of a flame—white-tipped. This and the long blue chimney are responsible for the splendid results obtained by New Perfection users everywhere.

The chimney is made long for a distinct purpose. It assures the burning of every last drop of kerosene used. There is no fuel wasted in the form of soot on the bottom of utensils. Then, too, it drives the clean heat of the white-tipped flame forcibly against the pan or kettle. No flame is ever as hot as the area just a little above it.

There's no stooping over to the oven when you use a New Perfection. It is up where you can reach it easily. The New Perfection oven has a three-point locking device that keeps the door closed tightly and prevents the escape and waste of heat. You can look into it at all times through the glass door. The large four-burner size with warming cabinet is most popular. There are also, however, five, three, two and one-burner sizes.

Use Aladdin Security Oil regularly to obtain the best possible results. Always pure and clean—it's all heat.

School Supts. for Trinkle

At the meeting of school superintendents in Charlottesville recently, in which a hundred counties and twenty cities were represented, a poll was taken of those present as to the two gubernatorial candidates at the Democratic primary on August 2d. It is reported that result was practically unanimous in favor of Trinkle, the only doubtful vote being the superintendent of the Alexandria schools, who had left before taking the poll.

In sad but loving reembrance of our dear father, ROZIER W. PULLMAN, who left us 20 years ago today, July 7th, 1901.

The Vinegar Hill team yesterday defeated the strong St. Paul's team in a hard fought game by a score of 37 to 6. Newton and Pettit played well for the losers, while Rogers and Grover played well for the winners. The Vinegar Hill team has been reorganized and desires to challenge the Rosebuds, the Destroyers, the Potomac Yards and all teams in their class. They will play the All Stars on Beckett's field this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Teams desiring games will call or write L. Kersey, 419 South Washington street.

Daylight Pictures

You have all attended the movie and sat in the dark while the pictures were being screened. How many of you have ever sat in full daylight and watched the game thru? That is what you will do at the illustrated lecture by Mr. Drew Pearson on the third day of the coming Chautauqua. A newly patented screen makes possible the showing of his stereopticon views in full daylight. The lecture will be given in the afternoon and not even the slide marks of the tent will be covered.

Another advantage of the "daylight" screen is that it makes it possible for the audience to see the speaker at all times. Mr. Pearson is a speaker of unusual ability as well as a lecturer of unusual power. Persons who have opportunity to hear him will have full influence.

An unusual picture will result.

ALL work of quality must bear a price in proportion to the skill, time, expense, and risk attending their invention and manufacture. Those things called dear are, when justly estimated, the cheapest; they are attended with much less profit to the artist than those which everybody calls cheap. Beautiful forms and compositions are not made by chance nor can they ever in any material be made at small expense. A composition for cheapness and not for excellence of workmanship is the most frequent and certain cause of the rapid decay and entire destruction of arts and manufactures. Ruskin.

The Spicing in Auth's Sausages Makes Them Distinctive—

The Circle of Goodness

So valued is the recipe of the spice ingredients that go into Auth's Sausages that it is a family secret. The original recipe, known only by Mr. N. Auth and one of his sons, is blended in the privacy of their laboratory. Thus you get Sausages of such distinctive deliciousness you're BOUND TO LOVE THEM!

Try This One—Sausages With Potato

Prick the sausages and put them into a baking dish. Cover with very soft mashed potatoes. Season, spread with beaten egg, and bake until well puffed and brown. Serve in baking dish.

RAILROAD RATES MAY NOT BE CUT

supposed to lie in the demonstration that the railroads were helpless to make better showings in 1920 than they actually made. In short, the view held by authorities in Congress on railroads is substantially the view expressed in the hearings by the railroad heads—that they did all they could do. The public is presumed to understand that now.

The reason for the failure to show adequate earnings, despite the high rates, is held to lie in the vast expenditures necessary for wages and supplies, plus the sudden drop in business and, consequently, in traffic in the latter part of 1920.

The conditions that prevented the railroads earning sufficient money, in the opinion of the members of Congress referred to, are in process of remedy. Wages have been ordered reduced, and supplies generally are coming down, except rails, while there is some improvement in business conditions as a whole, But the process is slow and gradual, and, hence, the opinion is that the year 1921 will pass before the spending side of the railroads' ledgers will show sufficient reductions to warrant general reductions in rates.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Practically the entire commercial apple crop of Va., has been destroyed in both the Valley and the Piedmont sections due to killing frosts at bloom ing time. There is a light scattering of York Imperial in a few orchards in the northern counties of the state which may run to possibly 10 per cent of a crop. Pippins are showing better than Winesap in the Piedmont and may make 2 to 3 per cent.

Richmond—Making awards aggregating $274,569.75 to 26 property owners for approximately 1,800 acres of land, the jury in the Camp Lee condemnation proceedings in U. S. District Court last week reduced the value of many tracts of land. As a result of the proceedings the title to the entire 7,228 acres composing the camp with a single exception, has been obtained by the government after more than two years effort at a cost of slightly more than $1,033.75 In its verdict the jury in one instance reduced from $125,000, the amount asked by the property owners for 115 acres of land to $21,500. In another case the owner sought approximately $50,000 for 176.16 acres and was awarded $16,080.

Washington—The Bureau of Internal Revenue yesterday announced the transfer of Robert A. Fullwiler, of Staunton, Va., from the position of supervising Federal agent for the Southern Department for the enforcement of prohibition to Federal director for the State of Virginia. The transfer is effective at once. The Virginia headquartiers of the new State director will be at Richmond.

Charlottesville—One hour after completing arrangements with an undertaker for the funeral of her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Dudley, who had died during the morning, Mrs. S. Bettie Coleman, 81 years old, was struck by an extra train on the Southern Railway late Tuesday evening and instantly killed. The accident occurred near the Dudley home, seven miles south of this city. The distressed mother, on her return from a visit to a neighbor, was run down by an engine and caboose.

Danville—The moving picture industry is soon to make its bow in Danville, a large corporation with Hugh Dalton at its head, having been chartered by the State corporation commission of Virginia. The concern is the Alnavista Production Inc., with a maximum capital of $1,000,000 and it has chosen as its base of operation the town of Alnavista in the northern part of Pittsylvania County, where steps are already being taken to convert it into a movie colony.

WILD WOMAN CAPTURED IN NEW JERSEY WOODS

[illegible] Jersey has a wild woman.

She was found roaming about the woods near May's Landing yesterday [illegible] brought to the Vineland Hospital for examination. There Dr. George Cunningham pronounced her hopelessly demented and she was identified as a Mrs. Isger, who formerly lived in Vineland but moved to New York a couple of years ago with her husband and children.

The woman was discovered on a tree by some berry pickers. He was clad in rags, with long, dishevilled hair and her body covered with insect bites. She had been living on roots and berries and seemed fairly well nourished.

Sheriff Perkins, of Atlantic county, was notified and formed a posse which finally located and captured the woman. She fought the men at first but was soon overpowered and taken to May's Landing.

There the woman, who is about 40, chattered and gibbered, but as the name Vineland was several times distinguishable in her ramblings, she was taken there.

DR. ALDERMAN DEFENDS BOARD OF VISITORS FOR THEIR CHANGE OF VIEWS

Charlottesville, Va., July 7.—Declaring that the medical man who proudly holds in 1921 the same theory of the origin of yellow fever that he held in 1900, is consistent but dangerous." Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, scores the recent publicity given by the committee for the adoption of the report of the medical commission to the fact that in 1913 the Board of Visitors of the University favored Richmond as a site for the medical school.

"The rector and, visitors of the University of Virginia in 1913 were acting in the light of facts and conditions then facing them and on the then generally believed hypothesis that clinical material was not available save in large cities," stated Dr. Alderman in his address before the recent meeting of the board of visitors of the University when that body overwhelmingly favored the retention of the medical school at Charlottesville.

"These eight years have seen the largest forward movement in medical education in generations. The facts and conditions have utterly changed. The value of direct University connection has become paramount. Our own University Hospital has grown into power; small cities have developed satisfactory clinics; and the point of view of those who really study medical problems has culminated in the impressive example of Vanderbilt University of Virginia are now acting in teh light of present conditions and knowledge. To follow any other course would be for them to substitute stubborn consistency for intelligent responsibility, and this is a fatal procedure in a world of growth The medical man who proudly holds in 1921 the same theory of the origin of yellow fever, for example, that he held in 1900, is consistent but dangerous."

Demand Exceeds Output as Ford Breaks All Previous Records

During the month of June, the Ford Motor Company, through its Detroit factories and 22 assembly plants throughout the country reached the production of 108,962 Ford cars and trucks, setting up a new high record for one month.

Produciton of Ford cars and trucks has been steadily increasing since early spring, and shows substantial gains over the same period last year The second quarter of 1921, viz., April, May and June, shows an out put of 301,796 Ford cars and trucks against 220,878 for the same three months of last year, or a net increase of 80,918.

Despite the fact, however, that the Ford plants have been running at maximum capacity, the demand for Ford cars and trucks is not being met, and at the present time, many thousands unfilled orders have been piled up ahead so that Ford sales are still limited by manufacturing facilities rather thon marketing possibilities. Particularly is this true with respect to enclosed cars, for which the demand has been unusually heavy.

One reason cited by Ford officials for the unprecedented demand for Ford cars is the present tendency toward economy. Many of those whose names have been added to the long list of buyers might well have afforded larger and more costly cars than the Ford, but it is the belief that most prospective motor cars buyers are investigating all of the costs incident to motoring much more carefully than at any period during the past five years.

The estimated output of the Ford factories for July calls for 109,000 cars and trucks, or a production of 4360 a day for 25 days. Since the assembling of cars is being handled during an eight hour work day only, the hourly output will be 545 cars. In other words, one Ford car or truck leaves the assembly line every 6 1-2 seconds.

Clogged up Kidneys Deposits are Dissolved and the Toxins (Poisons) Completely Driven Out. Druggists Told to Guarantee it in Every Instance.

"Your very life," says Dr. Carey, "depends upon the perfect functioning and health of your kidneys so whatever you do don't neglect them."

Dr. Carey's famous prescription No. 777 known as Mairshroot is not recommended for everything, but we cannot too strongly urge its use if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequent passing of water night and day, with smarting or irritation, brick dust sediment or highly colored urine, blosting irritability with loss of flesh, backache, rheumatism or any other tendency to Bright's Disease, Diabetis or Gravel, for kidney disease in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Don't wait until to-morrow to begin the use of this wonderful prescription if you have any of the above symptoms, Kidney and Bladder troubles don't wear away. They will grow upon you slowly, stealthily and with unfailing certainty.

Mrs. McCumber Avoided a Serious Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time

Georgetown, Ill.—"After my first baby was born I suffered so with my left side that I could not walk across the floor unless I was all humped over, holding to my side. I doctored with several doctors but found no relief and they said I would have to have an operation. My mother insisted on my taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. Now I can do all my own work and it is the Vegetable Compound that has saved me from an operation. I cannot praise your medicine too highly and I tell all of my friends and neighbors what the Compound did for me." — Mrs. MARGARET MCCUMBER, 27 S. Frazier St., Georgetown, Illinois.

Mrs. McCumber is one of the unnumbered thousands of housewives who struggle to keep about their daily tasks, while suffering from ailments peculiar to women with backache, sideaches, headaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness,—and if every such woman should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would get well.
